

LABOR BILL ACTION FRIDAY

State Session Of Legislature Comes To End

Harrisburg Sessions Of Law-
Makers Concluded Late
Tuesday Night

MANY NEW LAWS BEING PROVIDED

HARRISBURG, June 18.—(INS)—Teachers salary boosts, new tax sources for local governments and increased salaries for lawmakers today were part of a multi-million dollar program enacted by the 137th General Assembly during a six-month-long session.

The legislation was rushed to Gov. James H. Duff last night before gavel fell at 10:20 p. m. EDT. The official hour of sine die adjournment, toward which legislators had struggled since Saturday, was 8 p. m., EST, June 16. A postponement was forced by failure of assemblymen to agree on the legislation.

As lawmakers left the halls, a quartet sang "Auld Lang Syne". The legislature was unique in that it operated under two governors, John C. Bell, Jr., who served for only 20 days, and Duff. It also worked on a near billion-dollar budget, largest in Pennsylvania history.

Look For Special Session — Although the assembly ostensibly fulfilled its purpose in launching the commonwealth on a course of progress during 1947-49, most lawmakers looked for a special session next year to correct possible legislative bungling.

There appeared to be doubt that the new soft drinks tax, expected to return $35,000,000 in the next two years, will survive a constitutional test under way in the Dauphin county court.

One of the most far-reaching moves of the General Assembly was broadening local tax bases to help political subdivisions meet increased operating costs and shoulder a heavier share of the education finance burden.

Pa Newc Observes

A number of the interurban buses that pass through the city are now making use of the by-pass for Route 422, instead of going through the center of the business district.

A number of ancient model cars are still chugging their way about the city performing almost as well as the new designs which are being sported by proud owners who have waited for five and six years to secure a new car.

Secretaries in the local school buildings are using the morning hours to catch up in their work and to make out their annual reports. An uncanny quietness prevails in the school offices compared to the noisy atmosphere amid which they must work during the school year.

House painting has gotten into full swing in most areas of the city. Painters are keeping their fingers crossed in the hope of escaping the incessant rains of the past months have let it up for a little season. Roofers, too, it is found, are digging in to catch up on their delayed work.

An odd sight was noted in the downtown area Tuesday. A blanket salesman was seen happily playing his trade visiting residents in the hope of interesting them in something that would keep them warm next winter. His car parked nearby was loaded with blankets and bedspreads.

East siders from Court street to Cascade Park along East Washington street, were treated to an unscheduled horse show early Tuesday evening. A lone horse broke away from its owner in the vicinity of (Continued on Page Two)

Legislature Passes Teachers' Salary Bill

HARRISBURG, June 18.—(INS)—The General Assembly today guaranteed Pennsylvania's 60,000 teachers immediate salary increases ranging from $150 to $750 in its last act of the half-year long 1947 session.

Lawmakers settled the teacher pay issue, knottiest financing problem which confronted them, shortly before the gavel fell finally in the House and Senate. Gov. James H. Duff's approval was assured.

Will Add $48,000,000 — The increases were expected to add more than $48,000,000 to commonwealth school costs during the 1947-49 biennium and boost total state expenditures for education to $235,739,400.

Subject of heated controversy since February 18 when teacher-sponsored enabling legislation was introduced, the schedule finally adopted was a far cry from the $1000 boosts in mandated minimum pay demanded by instructors. The present minimum is $1400.

The new mandated salary schedule, which does not preclude additional optional raises by school districts, will offer starting pay advantages to college graduates and teachers with exceptional experience. (Continued on Page Two)

Two Gold Star Mothers Back From Overseas

HOBOKEN, N. J., June 18.—(INS)—Two typical American Gold Star Mothers—among the first to visit the graves of their sons in Europe—have returned today, strong with pride but tearful as they spoke of the white crosses lined five miles above the Maas river in Holland.

They arrived on the Holland American liner Venendam which docked at Hoboken and as they spoke of their journey to the graves their voices broke and tears flowed.

With 17,758 Others — Their hero sons lay with 17,758 other Yanks in a simple cemetery at Margraten, Holland.

Mrs. James Schnovel of Oaks, Pa., said: "My boy, Robert was 19. (He was with the 28th Infantry of the 8th Division) he was killed May 3rd, 1946, the day we joined the Russians."

"As you approach the cemetery from Margraten the crosses make a white mist against the sky and all Holland stands guard over those boys."

"The Dutch people would give our American boys more than they would give their queen. Those boys would never be revered in America as they are in Holland."

Cemetery Is Beautiful — Mrs. Isabel D. Favinger of DeWauville, Pa., said her son, Clarence Mills Jr., 20, of the 2nd Armored Division (Hell on Wheels) was killed November 27, 1944. She said: "The cemetery is beautiful beyond measure. It is high on a hill overlooking the German border five miles away."

On Memorial Day, the mothers said, Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, came to the cemetery and stood weeping beside them.

TWO FIREMEN KILLED — NEW YORK, June 18.—(INS)—Two firemen were killed and nine persons injured, police reported today in an explosion on the pleasure cruiser "Tippie" in the East river last night.

A 50-gallon steel gasoline tank, stored on the deck of the craft, exploded and drenched a rescue boat with burning gasoline and steel fragments.

The dead were City Firemen William D. Austin and Frederick Zeigler.

Seek To Install 13 New Traffic Lights In City

Mayor And Council Make Application For Permit
To Erect Lights

Mayor John F. Haven announced today that council and he have made application to the Pennsylvania State Highway department for permission to erect 13 new traffic lights in the city.

The installation has been recommended by the City Highway Traffic Study Committee, who with the mayor and council, believes that "traffic lights are the answer to speeding here."

Proposed Locations — The lights are proposed to be placed as follows:
Three-way: North street and Croton avenue; South Jefferson street and Croton avenue; Moravia street and Mahoning avenue viaduct.

Four-way: Greenwood avenue, Atlantic avenue and West Washington street; Smithfield street and West Washington street; Moody avenue and Wilmington avenue; Garfield avenue and Wilmington avenue; Pearson street and East Washington street; Ray street and East Washington street; and Allington avenue and East Washington street.

A bill was sponsored by Mayor Haven when the legislature met, which would grant the cities of the Third class the right to install such traffic lights as would best serve the purpose. He advocated overhead lights, in the center of the street. The bill was defeated, and the State Highway Department, insists that curb lights be installed, on all state-maintained highways.

The new light will be situated on the curb, if permission is granted. The request for permission to install the lights has gone forward to Chief Engineer Jackson with offices at Franklin, who, if he approves the installation, will forward his recommendation to the State Highway office at Harrisburg, for confirmation.

Traffic lights are most difficult to obtain and it may be three months before they are received. The cost of the lights was placed in the 1947 city budget, hence the Mayor's Department has sufficient funds to cover installation.

Midwest Flood Waters Increase

KEOKUK, Ia., June 18.—(INS)—Additional rain in Iowa today swelled the Midwest flood waters that are swirling down the Mississippi river and endangering a 100-mile stretch of riverland from Keokuk to Clarksville, Mo.

Army engineers warned that a major flood, probably as great as that of last week, would strike the threatened area within a few hours. Volunteers have been feverishly all along the threatened area, reinforcing the levees which had taken four lives in the Ottumwa, Ia., area and spread destruction over the state.

The new flood was expected to cause further damage to the corn crop in the corn-growing states of Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska where farm lands already have been hard hit by last week's inundation.

British-French 50-Year Alliance Is Being Made

PARIS, June 18.—(INS)—The French cabinet approved today a 50-year British-French alliance against possible German aggression in the future.

French Foreign Minister Bidault will go to London soon to exchange ratifications of the pact.

The alliance was first signed on March 1 at historic Dunkerque where seven years earlier 335 thousand British and French troops were nearly trapped by the Nazis during the collapse of France.

Session Of Legislature Passes Many New Laws

HARRISBURG, June 18.—(INS)—Pennsylvania had 288 new laws on the statute books today and an estimated 340 acts awaiting consideration by Gov. James H. Duff.

Of the total 223 pieces of legislation introduced by members of the 137th General Assembly which bowed out last night, only about 650 cleared the legislative mill. Duff vetoed nine.

Some of the major achievements during the 1947 session included:

WASHINGTON, June 18.—(INS)—The treasury submitted to Congress today a proposal to allow four million, 900 thousand married couples to split their incomes for tax purposes and thereby save an estimated 744 million dollars in income taxes annually.

This was one of four alternative plans for solving the family income tax tangle and removing "discrimination" transmitted by Treasury Secretary Snyder to Chairman Knutson (R) Minn. of the House Ways and Means Committee.

The alternative plans made public one day after the House had sustained the President's veto of (Continued on Page Two)

Duff To Get Community Property Bill

Legislation Aimed At Reduction Of Income Tax
For Married Persons

HARRISBURG, June 18.—(INS)—Federal income tax reductions denied by Congress may be afforded married Pennsylvanians under legislation awaiting action today by Gov. James H. Duff.

The measure would permit husbands and wives to halve property for the purpose of calculating separate income tax reports and reportedly would effect aggregate annual savings of $100,000,000.

Sponsored by Sen. John W. Lord, Jr., (R) Philadelphia, the bill was sent to Duff over vigorous protests from some Republicans and Democrats who claimed the legislation was designed chiefly to benefit persons in high income brackets.

Rep. A. D. Capano (D) Washington, said persons with incomes of $5,000 or less would enjoy savings of only two per cent while those securing $50,000 would be enabled to salvage 25 per cent of present taxes.

Some lawmakers contended provisions for equal division of joint property in cases of divorce were inadequate while others claimed the proposal would "upset completely our laws dealing with intestacy."

Property involved in the legislation would be only that acquired after marriage.

House Majority Leader Herbert P. Sorensen claimed the measure would not interfere with bequests nor tie up legal transactions.

Ellwood Police Hunt Safe-Cracker

One Safe Opened And Robbery Attempts Made At Two Other Stores

ELLWOOD CITY, June 18.—Police today are searching for a safe-cracker who, last night, knocked off the dial of the safe in the Brown Spring store, and also entered but obtained nothing at the Ruben Furniture store, Lawrence avenue and Reinhardt Furniture store, also Lawrence avenue. The burglar committed his acts between 9:30 p. m. and 11 p. m., E.S.T., it is reported.

Police Chief Clark Reiser reported that after the yegg had broken off the dial and inserted a drift pin in the lock, Howard Brown, proprietor of the Brown Feed store had occasion to return to the store and apparently frightened the safe-cracker, who fled, leaving some of his tools behind. The thief got into the store through the basement and used a trap-door to gain entrance to the office.

The safe-cracker also entered Reinhardt's store through a cellar door, but nothing was found stolen. He also broke a window in the Ruben Furniture store. The crash of glass alarmed tenants residing upstairs, who put on a porch light. They saw the man, who fled, leaving a handbag with some more of his burglar tools, consisting of a sledge and drift-pin.

President Will Send Message To Congress Friday

Report Decision On Labor
Measure Not Yet Made
By President

FRIDAY IS LAST DAY FOR ACTION

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, June 18.—(INS)—The White House announced today that President Truman will act on the labor bill Friday, the last day on which he can approve or veto the measure.

A White House spokesman said that the president will send a message to Congress Friday but indicated that Mr. Truman had not yet decided whether to sign or reject the Taft-Hartley bill.

Meanwhile, a flood of mail from opponents of the labor legislation poured in on the executive mansion.

It was disclosed that more than half a million postcards and 150,000 telegrams and letters had been received, most of them urging a veto.

Holds Conferences — The chief executive plunged into a series of conferences with his top advisers to decide his course of action on the controversial measure.

Returning to Washington after an address at Princeton University, the chief executive trimmed his engagement calendar in order to devote practically full time to consideration of the labor reform measure.

The president's decision on veto or signature of the bill is scheduled Friday—the last day in which he has to act on the legislation.

Analyzing Measure — During Mr. Truman's recent visit to Canada, his trip to Princeton and the time he spent studying the tax bill, White House advisers and government labor officials have been preparing thorough-going analyses of the voluminous Taft-Hartley bill.

John R. Steelman, assistant to the president, has been meeting for the last week with various members of the cabinet, getting their views on the labor measure. Complete reports were ready for Mr. Truman's attention today.

If the president disapproves the bill, it will be his second veto of a major congressional enactment in less than a week. Two days ago, Mr. Truman vetoed the four billion dollar tax reduction bill and yesterday the House sustained his action.

Threat Is Made For Extension Of Ship Strike

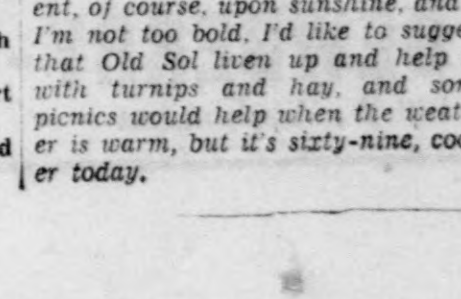

NEW YORK, June 18.—(INS)—A threat to "put out everything on the waterfront" was made today by Joseph Curran, president of the CIO National Maritime Union as negotiations to settle the Maritime "strike" continued.

Hundreds of ships in Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports, have been immobilized by the stop-work program of Maritime workers and embargo was imposed by railroads on freight destined for shipment to foreign ports.

Curran's threat was made at the conclusion of negotiation conferences attended by union leaders, representatives of the ship operators and John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor.

Gibson reported at 2:30 a. m. that the conference adjourned until 1 p. m. today that "some progress" has been made.

Arthur Mometer

If it ever quits raining, I hope, I hope, and the sun gets back on the job, I'm looking for picnics with salads and beans and roasting ears fresh on the cob. I'm thinking of pies that are mixed with the rolls and iced tea that's never quite cold, but all of these things are dependent, of course, upon sunshine, and if I'm not too bold, I'd like to suggest that Old Sol lives up and help us with turnips and hay, and some picnics would help when the weather is warm, but it's sixty-nine, cooler today.

Florida Father Beats Children To Death Today

(BULLETIN)

MIAMI, Fla., June 18.—(INS)—A father beat his young son and daughter to death with a baseball bat today.

Russell, a tavern keeper, battered the life out of the children as they slept.

Their bodies were found in their beds in their cottage home behind Russell's tavern.

After slaying the children, Russell shot and critically wounded his landlady and her husband, who had been court witnesses in an attempt to remove the children from their father's custody.

perience or training. It will wipe out present differentials between elementary and high school instructors.

Schedule Start
In second, third and fourth class districts, the schedule would start non-college graduates at $1950 and grant five $150 annual increments to establish a $2700 top minimum; start bachelor's degree holders at $2000 and grant eight $150 automatic raises to arrive at a $3200 top minimum; begin master's degree holders at $2200 and offer eight $150 annual increments to establish a $3400 top minimum.

The scale in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia will be $2175-$3175 for teachers without college degrees; $2200-$3300 for instructors with bachelor's degrees and $2400-$4000 for master's degree holders. In those districts, five $200 increments will be guaranteed non-college graduates while teachers with higher training will be entitled to eight automatic boosts of the same amount.

The legislation guaranteed increases during the 1947-48 school year of at least $200 for teachers in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and $150 for instructors in all other districts.

Devise Credit System

The State Council of Education was directed to devise a credit system under which non-college graduates with exceptional training or experience in their fields would merit pay advantages.

A flat $1600 pay rate was fixed for instructors lacking full teaching qualifications who were appointed during the war to believe a critical shortage of teachers.

Mandated salaries ranging from $4500 to $6000 were established for district and county superintendents.

Minimum subsidies for financing the salary boosts will be raised from $600 to $700 during 1947-48 and $800 thereafter while maximum subsidies will be increased from $1800 to $2200 during the next school year. One hundred dollars will be added each year until $2600 is reached in 1950-51.

part of Duff's program, will permit cities except Philadelphia, boroughs, first class townships and school districts except those of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh to tap vast new tax sources.

The legislation authorized taxes on sales of amusements, property and all items subject to but not bearing state imposts except utilities supervised by the commonwealth.

A $1 to $5 per capita tax was authorized for the Pittsburgh school district while personal property and mercantile levies were granted both the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia districts containing appointive school boards which lack power to specify tax sources.

Second class township were taken care of in a $10,000,000 gasoline tax allocation. A similar amount went to cities, boroughs and first class township.

Teachers Given Increases
The plan for obtaining new local revenues fitted into the teacher pay program which the governor claimed must become a greater responsibility of communities.

Most of the state's 60,000 teachers were granted $150 to $750 salary boosts during the 1947-48 school year a new pay schedule expected to add an additional cost of more than $48,000,000 to the state's education bill during the present two-year fiscal period.

Mandated salary ranges in second, third and fourth class districts will be $1950-$2700 for certificate holders; $2000-$3200 for bachelor's degree holders and $2200-$3400 for master's degree holders.

In Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, the wage scales would be $2175-$3175 for non-college graduates; $2200-$3300 for bachelor's degree holders, and $2400-$4000 for master's degree holders.

Increase Own Allowances
During the closing hours, lawmakers voted themselves increases of $100 a month in the form of unprecedented expense allowances.

Preparing for adjournment, the senate and house continued president pro tempore M. Harvey Taylor in his leadership post during the interim between sessions.

Bills adopted by both houses during 11th hour action would increase the fishing license fee from $1.50 to $2 and earmark 25 cents for research on stocking; curb "gyp" deals in financed sales of automobiles and other merchandise; establish carry over in most counties to fix wages of apprentice officers and employees and appropriate more than $6,000,000 for repairs and construction at state teachers colleges and the soldiers orphan school at Scotland.

Dropped following deadlocks between the house and senate were bills to increase hunting license fees, streamline penal laws and exempt coal operators, distillers, laundry proprietors and meat processors from the capital stock tax.

The tax reduction bill is to be used by the House Committee in preparing overall tax revision legislation to be offered at the next session of Congress.

Hints On Etiquette

A piece of business etiquette which needs to be stressed today, in these disturbed times, is, if you are an employee, see that you arrive on time; that you do not take more than your allotted time for lunch, or for loitering in the dressing room. Give your employer his money's worth.

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Tax Revision Plan Is Long Overdue

WASHINGTON, June 18. — The political clamor following on President Truman's veto of the Republican tax bill is likely to obscure one of the most telling points he made. In the last paragraph of his veto message, he called for a program of tax adjustments and tax reductions "geared to the financial and economic needs of this country."

That kind of program is long overdue. The late President Roosevelt talked about it often but he never got around to it.

Evidence is growing that some Republicans have a tax program they intend to try to put over next year. It is also evident that they want to try to shift as much of the tax burden as possible from income tax to the excise or sales tax. In other words, they would shift to the kind of tax that penalizes the low-income groups.

A tax program must originate with the House Ways and Means Committee. The other day, Chairman Harold Knutson of that committee named a group of outsiders to help draft a tax plan for 1948.

He named them without consulting the full committee and there were prompt cries of dictatorship.

Good Taste

By FRANCES MARKEL

POURING FORTH YOUR HEART ON PAPER

"I am in love with a young man with whom I worked in the same office during the past year. Actually, he has never taken me out on dates. He is very shy, quiet type, which results from three years spent abroad during the war. We were very friendly in the office and at my aunt's house where we both boarded while we worked together. In the evening, we played cards, danced to recordings and enjoyed mutually interesting conversation during our time spent at my aunt's house. On one occasion shortly before we both left our jobs and I came back to my home twenty miles away, he kissed me after which we had a misunderstanding. Since I have moved back home, I have been desperately lonely without him, although I must admit he has never given me too much encouragement. I have invited him to visit me here at my home, specifying a certain date for his visit. He never came and he never sent me any word one way or the other. I am so in love with him I thought perhaps if I make my feelings known to him, he might change his mind. If he didn't care at all, he would never have kissed me. Do you think I should write and tell him how I feel?"

Answer: You have my sympathy for nothing makes us quite so miserable as unrequited love. To know that our entire happiness depends upon someone who shows nothing but indifference is tragic indeed, if we allow it to become so. My advice to you is: Put this man from your mind—as far from it as you possibly can. No doubt you are thinking, "She can't say this because she doesn't know." But if you will look sensibly at it, you will come to the same conclusion—Because:

First—the boy has given you little or nothing to hope for. During the entire period when you worked together, he never asked you for a date. Don't delude yourself into thinking he wanted to but was too shy. No man is that shy! And why? No man is that shy who hears about don't exist—as far as love and the opposite sex are concerned at least. He did kiss you, yes, and he shouldn't have since by so doing he gave you encouragement which he evidently had no intention of following up. But most men will try to make love to a girl whether they are seriously interested or not. Whatever his motive was, it appears to have nothing to do with matrimony.

I am afraid you have given him sufficient come-on. Forget him and look to greener pastures. Even though your heart is breaking for love of him, you must save your pride. If he has any latent interest in you, a little competition might bring it to the fore. Let him see you with other male admirers. This might at least blast his ego and bring him to your camp. Even if it doesn't, you must come out of it with your chin up. Don't write to him any more and don't invite him to your house until he offers an adequate excuse for so rudely ignoring your previous invitation. Let him make the next gesture. In the interim, give him the silent treatment.

Veto Against Public Welfare

President Truman's veto of tax relief is a sharp reminder to the American people that they are still living under the New Deal.

They tried to get it off their necks by electing a Republican Congress, but a big obstacle remained. It is the man in the White House, who showed that he was just as firmly committed to the New Deal doctrine of "tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect" as was the originator of that pernicious policy.

Reduce Mr. Truman's rhetorical apologies and excuses to language that all can understand and here is what he said to the largest group of taxpayers, those in the lower brackets:

"This bill gives you a 30 percent cut in your income taxes, compared with 20, or 15 or 10 percent for others, but it isn't enough. So I won't allow you to have any relief at all. Wait until the proper time comes and see what I will do for you."

When will be the "proper time"? Next year, as mentioned by the President's chief financial adviser, Secretary Snyder?

It happens to be a Presidential and Congressional election year. This Republican Congress didn't wait until the eve of a heated political campaign to vote tax relief. It hastened to obey the people's mandate by voting it now.

When a Republican Congress was elected, few thought a Democratic President and his party would dare to play politics with tax relief. Relying on Mr. Truman's pledge to cooperate with the new Congress, for the country's welfare, without regard for partisan considerations, the Republicans simply went ahead and did their duty.

It was up to President Truman to do his. When the test came, he (Continued on Page Nine)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

DON'T FEED A CHILD BY FORCE

Often we say, "You can take a horse to water but you can't make him drink." Many mothers, not believing this, will push food into the baby's mouth, being sure they can make him eat. They seem to assume that he is a robot. But they soon discover that they can't make him swallow. Holding food in the mouth is often reported to me concerning children from one to three, even a few much older. One mother writes:

"Dear Dr. Myers, Please send me your bulletin 'Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction.' My son is 2½ and I dread mealtime because it is nearly always a fight. He holds food in his mouth and will not chew it up and swallow it, especially meats. I have to be never gets to eat other meat because he will hold it in his mouth and will not eat other vegetables and things. Should we force him to swallow it or take it from his mouth? A self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed."

Don't Force Food
In answering his mother (and enclosing the bulletin) I entreated her never to try to force this child to swallow or put food into his mouth he didn't want. But I told her she could set the stage so he would, eventually, choose to eat what was set before him.

This can't be accomplished all at once. It may take a good while for this child to recover from the harm already done to him and for you to get yourself under control so you will show no emotions over the child's poor eating and really have no such emotions when your (Continued on Page Nine)

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

A twelve-year old Long Island girl whom police had sought as missing for four days, was found in an attic closet in her own home.

She was so weakened by lack of food that she had to be lifted from the closet and carried to bed. When asked why she had hidden, she said that her mother had given her a note to her mother complaining of "mischievousness" and demanded that she return the note signed by the mother.

The girl was afraid to deliver the complaint and tore it up. But a few days later the teacher sent the girl home and told her not to return until the note was signed by her mother.

That evening her parents reported the girl missing and it was only by accident that the mother went to the attic closet to look for a bundle. The teacher, when questioned, stated that outside of her "mischievousness" the child's school reports had always been excellent and that she is a very good pupil.

When I read that story my own childhood came back to me. I remembered how I used to be afraid of my own mother and, although I loved her dearly, I know darn well that if I ever did anything wrong she would scold me and tell me what a bad boy I was.

But fortunately I could always go to my father with my troubles and, no matter what I did, he'd understand and help me out of my scrapes.

Don't think for a minute that he coddled me or that I could get by with anything with Dad. But he was one of the few adults who remembered that he was a child once himself and he had not (Continued on Page Nine)

From Me To You

By MESEALL

It happened again . . . that was the third time . . . surely it won't happen again . . . the postponement of the dedication of Plaferty's Field. And there is nothing that we humans can do about it either . . . just old mother nature turning on the spigots . . . and then forgetting to turn 'em off. Did you ever see such luck?

The rain and stopping of the familiar cry "play ball" is even more serious than some might think . . . out in the country where men and women depend on the soil for a living . . . and where we in the city depend on the soil to give us life . . . nothing is happening . . . that is no grain or vegetables are being planted. It's just too wet to get in the fields . . . some little oats have been drilled . . . a few acres of corn have been planted and that little bit of corn is growing . . . but it's mostly stock food and not human table kind. Other food stuff is still in the seed sack . . . surely something will happen and but soon so the farmer and truck gardener can get going.

We who live on earth can not see the reason for so much planting delay . . . but there must be a reason why the season is not according to schedule. Could it be that we have wasted too much during the past . . . spoiling potatoes by pouring oil over thousands of bushels? Plowing under good grain fields . . . killing off little porkers? Think if the foodstuff that has been destroyed in the past ten years . . . It could have some bearing on the fact that today farm production is being threatened.

Yesterday we had a very interesting experience . . . A Dairy Queen for this County was chosen from a group of eighty . . . wonderful farm girls. It so happened . . . we don't know how . . . that this scribe was one of the judges. The girls were judged on Beauty, Personality, Poise and Voice . . . and from one who knows it wasn't an easy assignment. We really have some mighty fine girls in this county . . . of course we aren't telling you anything you don't already know . . . But this group yesterday was so exceptionally fine . . . the kind of girl you think about when you think of America.

State Police Say:—

Head-on collisions are, in most cases, the result of careless passing and have resulted in a terrific loss of life on our highways. This type of accident is most likely to occur on curves and at crests of hills. Never attempt to pass another car at any time unless there is sufficient distance to make the pass in safety, at least 500 feet on curves and hills. A hurried glance with the result of misjudged distance has resulted in many accidents. TAKE TIME TO BE SAFE.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

Mr. Truman sees no evidence of a recession—everything seems to be holding up nicely including taxes.

As the President said, it isn't right that the man getting $2,500 a year should get only a $30 reduction . . . he wisely fixed it so the man won't get anything.

But he did hold out hope. Some day, somewhere, sometime taxes will be cut . . . and by the right people.

Personal problems are pressing these days . . . in Indianapolis a tenant evacuated with her landlady's teeth.

The landlady didn't mind the vacancy in her lower floor but she complained of the empty space in her upper jaw.

But some people are like that . . . they think nothing of knocking on the door and saying "we're having steak tonight can I borrow your Worcestershire and teeth?"

The World and the Mud Puddles

WISHY-WASHY SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Three teen-age high school girls recently walked out of a school auditorium in Washington when a woman speaker, praising Russia, made derogatory remarks about the United States. Even Congress took certain cognizance of their patriotic gesture. The thing not mentioned, though, is how this type of speaker received an invitation to address the students of a high school in the capital of the United States. The incident gives some support to the charges that Red advocates are losing no opportunity to inoculate the youth of this country.

In this connection, it would be interesting to know just why our text book commissioners appear to be so "broad-minded" to ward volumes which go out of their way to emphasize the virtues of the Russian system, while slighting in many particulars some of our own governmental virtues. The excuse usually offered is that of "being fair" and offering full information. It is not expected that any school text book should print libels on Russia or Communism; but neither is it expected that it should place a halo on an aura of glamor about a system which enslaves millions while minimizing the proven advantages of our own government.

School authorities have two important responsibilities. They should be careful about the type of speakers they permit to use the schools as a forum, and careful about the contents of text books.

ODORS AND BAD SMELLS.
Bad smells are not very pleasant. Sometimes they are due to dirt or filth, sometimes not.

A glue factory smells as bad as a dead horse.

Deodorants are substances which are used to do away with bad smells. Some deodorants merely substitute one smell for another. Usually cleanliness is the best deodorant.

If latrines and toilets and rest rooms are kept clean, deodorants are not needed. Soap and water and fresh air and elbow grease make a pretty good combination if mixed with some brains.

Cleanliness and sanitation go hand in hand. If a thing is sanitary it is clean.

They Say

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON — President Truman vetoes the tax reduction bill. "It offers dubious, ill-apportioned, and risky benefits at the expense of a sound tax policy and is, from the standpoint of government finances, unsafe."

WASHINGTON — Henry Wallace, former vice president, proposes a third party unless Democrats and Republicans change their policies: "It will be important—if the Democratic Party succumbs to Wall Street domination—to have a new party to let the people of the world know that those who believe in peace and understanding still have some means of expression."

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — General George C. Kenney, commanding general of the Strategic Air Command, said: "Only a state of preparedness to repel attack can prevent our being attacked . . . a defenseless nation is always the nation most subject to attack."

Coal Contract Without Strike Now Foreseen New York Demos Grumbling Over Appointment Tests For Truman In Bills; May Affect 1948

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Despite the breakdown in coal wage negotiations, there is a feeling in Washington that John L. Lewis and the soft coal mine operators will get together on a contract without a serious mine strike.

There may be a stoppage next month when the mines are returned to private operation, but government officials are not alarmed. They do not think it will last long.

Labor union leaders are confident that the northern operators will soon make the miners a better offer than the recent 15-cent-an-hour pay boost proposal.

They maintain that the companies are making record profits; that the industry's representatives will not permit a long strike at a time when the demand for coal is running strong and prices are high.

Moreover, union experts believe that the so-called "captive" mines will press for a settlement with Lewis. They point out that the steel companies do not want to be forced to shut down their mills.

Steel production is running full blast, the orders are piled high, and the steelmakers are assured of peace with the CIO steelworkers for a year to come. They will not want a coal shortage to spoil this bright picture.

NEW YORK DEMOS GRUMBLE—The New York Democratic organization was surprised and slightly annoyed by President Truman's appointment of Harold R. Medina, Brooklyn attorney, to the recent vacancy on the federal bench in the southern New York district. The president did not even consult the New York Democratic leaders before making the appointment.

The fact is that Mr. Medina made the appointment on the recommendation of, and as a favor to, Judge Samuel Rosenman, who has helped in the writing of presidential speeches. Rosenman was legal counsel to the late President Roosevelt, and remained for a while in the same post under Mr. Truman.

When Democratic leaders protested later to Attorney General Clark over being ignored, he replied that the president had made the appointment on his own volition. The New Yorkers, however, are still grumbling.

LONG-AWAITED TRIUMPH—Rep. Adolph Sabath (D., Illinois, 81-year-old dean of the House, is celebrating a victory scored after 35 years of fighting.

In 1912, Sabath fought against a proposal in the Republican-controlled 62nd Congress to require the federal government to pay the costs of meat inspection.

A few days ago, the present GOP-dominated Congress vindicated Sabath's position. The House appropriations committee recommended that the government cease underwriting the costs of inspections. When Sabath began his fight, the costs amounted to three million dollars a year. By 1947, the bill had increased to $11,000,000.

The House committee evolved a plan whereby an ultimately self-sustaining revolving fund will be established with fees paid to the government for meat inspections.

TEST FOR TRUMAN?—Many Republican leaders are by no means certain their party's nominee will defeat President Truman in the 1948 election. Many and varied are their reasons.

One prominent Republican visited Mr. Truman recently and talked to him about the tax reduction and labor control bills. Finally, he said to the president:

"If you get over this hurdle (disposing of both bills) okay, we'll have the devil's own time beating you for a re-election."

The president smiled enigmatically.

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The distressingly familiar but monumentally important problem of German production and industry was thrust before the world again today by former President Hoover's ominous warning that America's potential may be jeopardized unless a definite limit is placed upon United States aid to the world.

Former President Hoover's sombre letter emphasizing the danger to American institutions in a prolonged policy of giving and loaning made far from dry reading.

On the contrary, it posed a direct challenge to both the defeated people of Europe and the victorious Allies as to whether American generosity can run forever on a one-way street.

Key To Problem
In essence, Mr. Hoover's delineation of the German coal and fertilizer problem is the key to most of Europe's economic problems.

The one-time chief executive put it with utmost simplicity. First, Germany can produce coal at about three dollars a ton, while it now costs the United States between $14 and $16 a ton to ship it in.

Second, the German soil must have artificial fertilizers such as phosphates to produce, and there must be some means of controlling manufacture to ensure these chemical outputs do not stray into armament production.

It is well known to the people of Europe that the United States has not been rigidly in the matter of financial and material aid.

But it is equally well-known that they are being retarded in their return to some degree of normal living by a paradoxical combination.

Too Much U. S. Generosity
This is American generosity coupled with the absence of inter-allied agreement on European methods and measures of self-sufficiency. As with all other peoples, there doubtless are some Germans who would rather receive a dole and let themselves sink into the real ferocity than to work with the real ferocity that reconstruction demands.

There undoubtedly are others who would like to see German production geared to the Hitler scale in preparation for a war of revenge against the conquerors.

But it is highly unlikely that the rank and file of men and women in the Ruhr, in the Rhineland and (Continued on Page Nine)

BEGINNING TO TALK

At first a word, then two and three, And then a sentence all complete; I'm sure no speech can lovelier be Than that a baby's lips repeat.

First words in memory books are penned And cherished fondly down the years. They'll be remembered to the end—The sweetest to a mother's ears.

Then as the mind is opened wide And sentences begin to flow, No richer source of joy and pride Than the doting human heart can know.

The first soft smile is good to view, There's triumph in the first brief walk.

But it is rapture, through and through, To hear the baby start to talk. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Y.M.C.A. Summer Camp Will Begin 26th Year

When the first group of young Y. M. C. A. members leaves the city July 6 for Camp Fred L. Rentz, along the banks of the Slippery Rock, it will mark the 26th year the site has been used by the association.

Expanded in 1929 by the late publisher of The News, who donated 26 acres of land to the "Y" and built six of the present cabins, the popular summer site has grown into one of the most modern installations of its kind in western Pennsylvania, an ideally located retreat for youths to enjoy swimming, sports and other recreational activities.

When the first campers went to the location in 1922, they lived in tents and underwent conditions that today seem primitive. In recent years a new recreation building and headquarters have been added, plus eight new cabins to accommodate a host of boys through the vacation period.

First Camp In 1909
The local branch has always had some sort of camp site for its members. The first such project was in 1909 when the boys enjoyed outings along the Neshannock creek, one mile above Neshannock Falls, with J. Myron Waldorf as physical director.

The second site was on Lake Erie and one year after Robert L. Meermans, present general secretary of the branch, came to the city, a camp was held at Muddy Creek Falls, Victor Patterson, now head of the Pottstown, Pa., branch, was director at that time.

Busy All Summer
The present camp site is busy all through the summer months. Again this year, the 4-H boys of the county will be the first to use the facilities, from June 30 to July 4. The "Y" will start their sessions July 6, with the central branch members using the site for five weeks and the Shemango street branch members enjoying a week there August 10-17.

Following this parade of youngsters, the senior high school of the city will send its football squad to the camp for 10 days. A five-year contract has been signed by the New Castle school district and the association for use of the site as a grid training spot, and many improvements will be made this summer to make the lay-out an ideal conditioning camp for the players.

Attendance at the camp is computed in "boy weeks" and the "Y" states that an average of 450 members utilize the summer spot each year.

First two weeks is already filled, but there are vacancies for the other sessions.

William Winter and David Gattall, staff members at the branch, will supervise the activities this year at the site.

Trio Of Boys In Sailboat Turned Back By Police

CLEARFIELD, Pa., June 18.—(INS)—The little 20-foot sailboat, the "Severn," which last week left Clearfield for a voyage down the Susquehanna river to Harrisburg, was back in its home port today—by order of the Pennsylvania State police.

Manned by three schoolboys, the little boat was pulled from the river at Lock Haven after successfully negotiating the most treacherous stretches of the stream.

State police told the boys that flood conditions in the north branch of the Susquehanna made it unwise for them to continue the journey at the present time.

The three-man crew was Skipper Bill Winkler Jr., Anthony Nacca and Joe Marrara, all teen-agers of Clearfield.

COMMUNITY GARDEN WILL BE DEDICATED

made by Mrs. James Moorehead and Mrs. L. F. Royston is in charge of arrangements.

The Community Rose Garden was laid out in 1942 by the Lawrence County Garden club as a tribute to all men and women of Lawrence county who served in the armed forces during World War II. Through the appreciative response of the public and the cooperation of the city of New Castle, the first planting of roses was made in November 1942.

In Full Bloom
At the present time the garden, 16 beds laid out in formal pattern, is truly a beauty spot with 750 rose bushes, red, white, yellow and pink, in full bloom.

Plans are for the garden to be an expanding growing tribute of beauty to the service men and women of the community. Ultimately, beds laid out in formal pattern will be added to the extent of the capacity of the city park, estimated to be 15,000 rose bushes.

Sunk into a large boulder at the back of the garden is a bronze plaque of identification and acknowledgment, recently added to the garden.

How the Garden Started

On June 4, 1942, at a meeting of the Lawrence County Garden club at Mrs. L. F. Royston's, a committee was appointed by the president, Mrs. Royston, to look into a project for the club. Named to the committee were Mrs. Robert W. Lamore, Mrs. William Berkstresser, Mrs. Otto Pearsall, Mrs. W. G. Eckman and Mrs. W. Russell Allen.

In November 1942 the Lawrence County Garden club took as its project the planting of a rose garden in the city park opposite Jameson Memorial hospital to continue through the years in honor of all men and women in the service of their country from Lawrence county.

An invitation was issued to clubs, organizations and individuals to join in making the plot a focal beauty spot of the community.

Planting Enlarged
Such was the response from groups and individuals that the original planting has been constantly enlarged and bushes replaced where necessary during the past four years until it has reached its present size.

Those who made possible its establishment are: Junior Command, Universal Sanitary Co., East Brook Garden club, Junior Guild of Jameson Memorial hospital, Elliott Steel company, Standard Steel Spring company, Harbor Garden club, Harlansburg Garden club, Ladies of the Lions, United Engineering company, Women's Auxiliary to American Legion, Current Events class, Oakwood Garden club, the Music club, the Art club, Ladies Auxiliary to the F. O. E., Woman's club, Winodausis club, East Side Garden club, city of New Castle council, Federation Juniors, Lions club, Mahoning Valley Garden club, Reading Circle '91, Walmo Garden club, Rotary Club, Harry L. McBride auxiliary, Sorosis, Conservation and Garden department of Woman's club, Nurses in Service, Mrs. William Harkins, Mrs. Don Christopher, Mrs. Walter Morgan, Mrs. Carl Paisley, Mrs. William Hinkson, Mrs. Edith Harlan, Mrs. O. J. Shannon, Mrs. J. D. McClelland, Mrs. Roy Jamison, Mrs. L. F. Royston and Dr. R. F. Galbreath.

On the rose garden committee are Mrs. L. F. Royston, chairman, Mrs. Harry Wettich, Mrs. A. B. Fankhauser, Mrs. John Loudon and Mrs. J. Clyde Giffilan. Care of the garden is supervised by Owen Penfield Fox, city forester.

A lightweight wall for small homes has been developed, made with a panel of laminated aluminum on which a bakelite resin is used.

Lowered Hemlines May Trip You Up!

Dropping the hem a couple of inches may be all that is necessary to bring last year's dress up-to-date. Unfortunately, however, this is not always as practical as you might expect. The National Cleaners Institute points out that try-as-you-dry cleaner may it's some times impossible for him to erase the traces of alteration. All too often the worn nap and discoloration caused by the former hemline are a dead giveaway. And frequently there is a difference in the color below the original hemline where the cloth has been protected from fading.

Local Employees Of Sharon Steel To Get Back Wages

Wage Inequities Will Be Paid After
July 1 To Former-Present
Employees Of Plant

Former local employees of the Sharon Steel Corporation and the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation at the Farrell Steel plant, who have payments due on wage inequities, retroactive to January 4, 1944, will receive them after July 1. This announcement was made by the Joint Wage Rate Inequity Committee of the Sharon Steel Corporation.

The wage scale consists of 30 standard hourly wage rates for the various classifications, from $1.09 to $2.25 per hour.

However, not all employees will receive an increase over the 12½ cent boost as of April 1 under the new standard hourly wage scale, the announcement said. Only those employees whose actual hourly earnings were less than the newly established standard hourly wage rate will be entitled to payments for the retroactive period.

Retroactive payments are to be made in lump sums, as soon as possible after July 1. Present employees do not have to file applications. But former employees must secure blanks from John H. Grille, staff representative local office C.I.O.

U. S. Steelworkers of America, and file them before the middle of July. Social security number and the payroll numbers are necessary in filing the application.

No employee should sign applications, unless they were employees of the said plants after January 4, 1944.

Falls Candidate For Controller Of Lawrence County

HARRY O. FALLS

Harry O. Falls, a lifelong resident of New Castle, in announcing for the office of county controller makes the following statement to the people of Lawrence county:

"The electorate is entitled to know something of the qualifications of one aspiring for a public office. It is impossible for me to personally contact each voter, therefore, this means is used to make the contact. My education began at the Lincoln-Garfield school, continued at Ben Franklin and graduated from Senior High in 1935. Four years accounting course at Youngstown college enabled me to qualify for a position in the accounting department of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., thus employed until December 1942 when I entered the military service of our country, serving until October 1945. Of this service, 27 months was overseas in Africa, Corsica, France and Germany, receiving four battle stars. During the campaign I was attached to a military intelligence unit and discharged as master sergeant. I am married and reside with my family at Summit street, New Castle.

This office is of great importance to the taxpayers of this county. The controller is the "watch-dog" of your tax money, great care should be exercised in making your choice. I feel that my schooling and experience as an accountant qualifies me for your consideration. It is on my experience that I solicit your vote and influence at the coming primaries. If nominated and elected I give you but one promise and that is to serve you to the best of my ability."

Subject to the Republican primaries.

YOUR NEW REGULAR ARMY WANTS YOU TO KNOW HOW VOLUNTEERS ARE SELECTED

Would it surprise you to know that only about 60 out of every 100 volunteers for the new Regular Army can measure up to today's requirements for a soldier?

Only the top 60% of American youth—mentally, morally and physically—can pass the rigid tests.

There are reasons for this which your Army wants you to know:

- 1 The men we send overseas must represent you to millions of people who are struggling towards true democracy. Your soldiers are their contacts with our way of life. They must be typical of our best.
- 2 The truly modern Army requires a far higher type of soldier than ever before in history. The wide use of scientific material—advanced weapons and the broad and continuing program of research and development—necessitates a superior man. Your Army must lead the world in the caliber of its men if it is to provide adequate defense in the atomic age.

Model Planes In Tri-State

Latest count reveals that over 500 contestants will bring their model planes to the Optimist-sponsored tri-state "Air Derby" to be staged at the New Castle airport, Sunday, June 22.

Boys from Sharon, Youngstown, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Erie and many other localities in the area are expected to compete in the show.

Airplanes to be flown at the meet range from a tiny control line model that can be placed in one's pocket to a giant, ten-foot plane that flies by radio control from the ground.

No admission charge is planned for the meet and a throng of spectators is expected to visit the airport to see these swift models perform.

There will be plenty of parking space for spectators and contestants. It was announced.

Inform Public

Model Meet Free

Optimist club of New Castle, sponsors of the big model airplane meet, scheduled for the airport June 22, wishes to inform the public that there will be no admission charge to the show.

There has been a misunderstanding regarding the air derby, arising from the posters which have been placed about the city.

The one dollar entry fee applies to the miniature airplane builders themselves and not to the spectators. There will be no admission charge made and plenty of parking space is offered to those who wish to attend.

VETO AGAINST PUBLIC WELFARE

failed to do so. He thus becomes the first President in our history to block tax relief for all the people.

Mr. Truman would have them believe that Congress acted precipitately without regard for the Government's financial position. On the contrary, Congress sought the opinions of the greatest fiscal experts in the country, regardless of their party affiliations. Months of hearings were devoted to this subject.

It is unnecessary to dwell on the fact that two former Undersecretaries of the Treasury, both Democrats, joined with leading Democrats in Congress, authorities on Government finance, in warning that postponement of tax reduction would be fraught with grave danger to the Nation's welfare.

Every specious argument now repeated by Mr. Truman for continuing the outrageously oppressive wartime taxes was refuted long ago. He asserts that tax reduction now would be an inflationary factor, but what has not happened to stop the tremendous Government spending?

He pays lip service to the need for "the utmost economy" after presenting an enormously swollen budget and declaring it can't be cut by one dollar.

Yes, it's the same New Deal in the same old guise of helping the people while the bureaucrats prepare to dip into the same old pork barrel. Mr. Truman would have a large part of the big tax money continue to go to all sorts of unnecessary and wasteful projects instead of giving the oppressed taxpayers a break and providing funds for industry to expand, maintain jobs and avert a recession.

Every line of the President's veto message shows he knows he is on the defensive, that he must try to justify a course that runs dead against the people's wishes, against plain common sense, the best financial advice and the action of a large majority of Congress.

Under our Constitution one man is empowered to nullify any act of Congress, but it is difficult to recall any instance where a President has so flagrantly abused his veto power, authority to play politics with a measure so imperative to the well-being of his country.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

forgotten that childhood is the age of exploits and adventure, of trial and error.

I have always wondered why grown-ups seem to be such complete strangers to themselves as youngsters.

I have seen women censure their daughters for the very things they did when they were young, and I have seen men preach to their sons about things which they might well have taken to their own hearts.

A young man and his wife are building a house across the road from us. They haven't much money and the house is a modest one.

But every evening, after work, the two of them putter around in this unfinished house and do a little work of their own. Yesterday they painted some window frames.

And with them were their ten-year-old boy and their eight-year-old daughter, each with a brush and trying to paint as well as their parents.

They were having a swell time together and when they were all through they sat down in their car had some cake and coffee.

There, was laughter and friendship and love between the four.

That house is going to be a home—and those kids will never hide in the attic closet in fear of punishment.

Because those parents big their children to come unto them, rather than drive them away like so many parents who feel big because they can scare little kids.

own insides will be entirely at ease.

Should Feed Self
By all means let him remove anything from his own mouth he does not want there. Such foods could not get into his mouth in the first place if he always fed himself without any help or interference from your hand or tongue. Once he knows you won't push any food into his mouth he doesn't want and won't command him to do so, the problem will be simple.

Since you have no problem with liver and bacon, why not limit his meats to these for some weeks? How about grinding or shredding his other meats?

Just see what a change you will have to make in yourself—your biggest problem—in order to say no more such as "Now eat this," and to betray no more anxiety with your eyes, voice, or way of breathing, but to be wholly serene and relaxed. In order to win such exploits you will not center your attention on his eating at this meal or even the next and next, but on his appetite two weeks or two months from now.

Follow the simple rules: One food at a time. The most important one offered first, in very, very small portion, perhaps no bigger than a lima bean. If he refuses this, say nothing. Just remove it and end the meal there seeing he can have no other food till the next regular mealtime. Always let him choose between what is offered and nothing. If you will study my bulletin and follow it literally for several months you and this little child should be able to have happy meal-times. If you don't, consult your physician.

taxes in the higher brackets. In some instances they have openly advocated a federal sales tax.

The chairman and prime mover of the special "tax study committee" is Roswell Magill, member of one of New York's largest corporation law firms and a professor of law at Columbia University. One of the most influential members is John W. Hanes, who represents large corporate interests in New York, including the Hearst properties. Hanes was one of the two private citizens permitted by the Republican majority to testify before the Ways and Means Committee on the tax bill just vetoed.

Another member is Cheever Cowdin, motion-picture executive who has frequently been a spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers on taxes and finance. Still another member is Carson S. Duncan, economist of the Association of American Railroads.

Knutson's effort to make this appear a "bi-partisan" committee, is plain foolish. While there is some window-dressing — members who theoretically represent farm and labor — the key men will speak from the special point of view of great wealth.

Trend Is Seen
An editorial in the New York Journal of Commerce made clear what the Wall street community thought of the Magill group. The editorial had the headline: "Magill appointment underscores trend toward sales tax." Magill, said the editorial, will play a "key role" in formulating a new tax program.

Rep. Alvin J. Furdand of Rhode Island, one of the Democrats who challenged Knutson's right to name these outsiders and give them special powers, pointed out a deadly parallel. It is a parallel which should make the Republican leadership stop, look and listen.

In 1930, Herbert Hoover was in the White House. Republicans controlled both Senate and House. While the stock market crash of 1929 had jarred confidence, the philosophy of high and unending prosperity was still in the ascendant.

In that fateful year, the Republicans in the House invited business men to come in and write a tariff law. They brought into the committee room high priests of high protection—such men as Joseph Grundy of Pennsylvania—and they told them to write their own ticket.

Protested Action
The result was the Smoot-Hawley

high-tariff law. Mr. Hoover himself protested. A thousand experts in economics and political science signed an earnest plea to prevent adoption of the law. They knew that it would hasten the tide of depression all over the world.

A tax program that transfers even part of the burden to the low-income groups will take dollars out of the pocket of the average consumer that he otherwise would spend for the products of our factories and farms. It means we shall be less able to buy those products. It means depression.

There should be changes in our antiquated tax structure. The committee for economic development pointed the other day to the need to give small businesses a chance to invest a large share of their earnings. These and other changes are long overdue. But if they come as merely part of a plan to switch the load to the small wage earner, then we shall be asking for boom and bust in the good old pattern of 1929 and after.

In some sections of the Orient it is customary for a girl to weave a special rug for presentation to her prospective husband. It is said some young men look over the field of dowry rugs in the village before picking out a prospective bride.

Lions Club Hears Of Scout Program

Scout Executive Thomas G. Allen Tells Of Growth Of Scouts And Their Program

WAR YEARS SAW SCOUTING GROW

New Castle Lions club members heard Thomas G. Allen, Lawrence County Scout Executive, at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castle, Tuesday noon, who told them of the program of the National organization and the Lawrence County Council.

The Boy Scout program, he stated, is divided into three parts: the cub pack for boys 9 to 11 years of age, inclusive; the Scout Troop for boys 12 to 15 years of age, and Senior Scouting for boys 15 to 18.

The older group may either be Senior Scouts in a patrol of the Scout Troop, or a separate unit with an adult leader. Many of them give leadership as Troop leaders, Junior Assistant Scoutmasters, and in other capacity. Many are enrolled as sea scouts, or as air scouts or explorer scouts.

Reached Peak
During 1947, scouting reached its peak in the World War One period, when it showed a tremendous growth, and again in World War Two, 1943 saw the peak with a gradually downward trend until September 1946. Now the membership trend is going back upward again, and it is not known whether the peak for the present era has been reached or not.

On December 31, 1946, there were a total of 2,053,397 men and boys enrolled in scouting.

There are 48 units in Lawrence county, he stated, with 1,002 boys enrolled. However, he stated there should be 93 troops, with an enrollment of over 2,000.

Two Lawrence county boys will attend the world jamboree in Nolson, France, this summer, with three alternates also expecting to go. This will be the first world jamboree held since 1937.

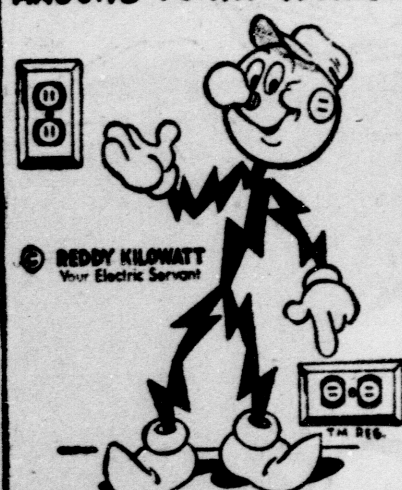

Funds for financing the scout work in the county comes from the community chests of New Castle and Ellwood City, but additional funds have to be raised to take care of the maintenance of the scout camp and to provide new equipment. Sustaining memberships are sold for this purpose. Some additional funds may be needed to send the five county boys to the World Jamboree, in addition, this year, he stated.

Larry Firster was introduced as a new member of the club, and it was announced that a directors meeting would be held in The Castle Thursday noon.

Arthur W. Meek, new district governor of District 140F, spoke briefly on the recent convention, when he was elected to the district office. He is a past president of the New Castle club, which sponsored his candidacy for the office.

Some More Old Time Slants In Ordinances

It was early to bed and early to rise in 1899; that is, if an ordinance, approved February 28, 1899, is to be believed. It prohibited children under 14 years of age from being out late at night—8 p. m. between October 1 and April 1, and 9 p. m. April 1 and October 1.

If they were found out, unaccompanied, by either a parent, or an adult, they could be fined as low as 50 cents and as high as $10, and further, if they defaulted payment, they could be confined in the county prison for two days. Now this worked out in regard to the jail sentence is not known.

The 8 and 9 p. m. 14 years old children ordinance was introduced December 27, 1898. It was not approved by Mayor S. W. Smith until February 28, after it had been adopted by select council, R. K. Aiken, president and E. I. Phillips, common council president.

But times since have changed. Children under 16 are now permitted to remain on public highways until 11 p. m. If found after that hour, a policeman jots down their name in a little black book and their parents are advised of the violation.

Back in 1900 if a corporation, company, or any other person, wanted to employ a special policeman, who was clothed with all the powers of the city policeman, all he need do was to petition the mayor.

In 1908, the city did not have municipal garbage collection as it is efficiently conducted today. In those days residents had to pay H. H. Updegraff 60 cents for the removal of each and every can. Providing he paid his bill before the tenth of the month, he received a rebate of 10 cents.

That is the substance of a supplemental ordinance which was introduced by R. H. McCann in Common Council, March 9, 1908 and passed by Select Council and Common Council, of which R. L. Wallace and A. Stevenson were presidents.

Communists
And Bridges
In Conference

NEW YORK, June 18.—(INS)—The N. Y. Journal-American stated today a secret meeting between Communist party leaders and Harry Bridges, president of the CIO Longshoremen's union on the west coast, was held in New York a few hours after the ship strike was called.

The Journal-American story added: "The meeting was held in the apartment of Harry Winocur, secretary of the CIO maritime joint policy committee."

"Besides Bridges and Winocur, those present at the gathering were William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist party; Robert Thompson, New York state secretary; John Williamson, national labor secretary; and Al Lannon, who is the communists' liaison man for the maritime industry."

"The object of the conference could not be learned but observers believe its purpose was an all-out communist effort in the ship strike. Foster, Williamson and Thompson left the Winocur apartment at 3:25 p. m. and drove off in a car registered in Foster's name. A half hour later Bridges came out, and got into a cab. When he was asked the nature of the meeting he appeared confused and tried to deny that he knew Winocur, except in the vaguest manner."

"Bridges' parley with the top moguls of the Communist party was held as Joseph Curran, president of the CIO National Maritime union which called the ship strike, was addressing a meeting of the rank-and-file."

"Earlier in the day Curran had said he understood Bridges had left town for San Francisco to take charge of the maritime strike on the west coast."

"Curran and Bridges have been at odds for a year over the issue of communism, but the feud was suspended 'in the interests of unity' in the present strike."

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, June 18.—Dane

Clark is in a quandary, he's been offered one of the prize roles of his career, but he isn't sure whether he should take it.

Dane, who is 29, said: "Do you think I could look 16 years old?"

Your reporter said that he might be able to. "That's the rub," said Dane. "I don't know. This picture has one of the best scripts I've ever read, but about half the story is told in flashbacks of when the character was 16 or 17."

Cases Cited
"Well," said your reporter, "there have been cases in Hollywood when women in their late thirties and early forties have played they were 18 or 20 on the screen." "That's right," said Dane, "maybe it could be done. I guess age is a matter of spirit as well as of looks. Maybe I could do it all right. I hope so."

There you have a screen star's problem.

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—(INS)—The transit strike in St. Louis today entered its sixth day with no basis for settlement agreed upon by the Public Service company and the striking streetcar and operator's union.

A fourth strike-ending plan submitted by Mayor Aloys P. Kaufmann was rejected by the union. The Public Service company's chief negotiator, John L. Wilson, called the plan "eminently fair."

Mrs. Mary Kurtz of South Beaver street has returned to her home after an extended visit with her daughters, Mrs. Frieda Brinton and Mrs. Virginia Baldwin of Clairton, Pa.

Bryan Receives Nash Plaque

Nash Motor Car company honors W. C. Bryan (left in photo above), head of Bryan Motor Sales by presenting him with the company's 10 point program Plaque at a banquet in The Castleton last night. Presenting the plaque is R. T. Lingle, assistant zone manager of Pittsburgh.

Clayton Bryan, president of W. C. Bryan Motor Sales and his sales and service staff were honored Tuesday night in The Castleton Hotel by the Nash Motor Car Company. The local motor sales company is the first dealer company to qualify under the Nash Motors 10 point dealers program, and for this Mr. Bryan was presented with a plaque. Members of the staff were given lapel buttons.

In meeting the requirements of the 10 point program, Mr. Bryan had to meet the highest standards with respect to capital, floor space, location, display signs, parts, service and stock facilities, new and used car facilities and an efficient accounting system.

Nash officials attending the dinner included Robert Lingle, zone manager, A. R. Seaborn, district manager, and Ben Gallagher, service representative.

Mr. Lingle spoke briefly at the dinner meeting in the hotel and outlined Nash objectives for the coming year. He said that Nash was not trying for a record number of dealers, preferring to limit it to outstanding dealers in key markets. A policy of "more cars for fewer dealers" selected to handle Nash cars must have proper facilities.

Some twenty-one were at the dinner meeting, a special guest being Mrs. Clayton Bryan, wife of the president of the company.

Declares Steel Activity Decline Months Away

NEW YORK, June 18.—(INS)—Iron Age said today that "the expected decline in steel activity is months away."

The national metal working paper said: "Some minor soft spots have developed in recent weeks but these are offset by the overall strong requirements from other steel consuming customers. A quick survey indicates that major steel companies are only placing orders on their books which they know can be completed with the steel mill production schedules. Were all bars to be let down incoming steel order volume would be far greater than at the present time."

Red Sox And Braves Making Valiant Flag Fights In Respective Loops

Beantown Fans Are Dreaming Of Another Series

This Time The Braves Are Red-Hot And May Win National League Flag

By LOU GARAVENTE
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, June 18.—Boston's baseball partisans, patriots as well as diamond addicts, paused yesterday to celebrate the historic battle of Bunker Hill and Col. William Prescott's immortal strategy. "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes."

But the usually staid and sombre citizens of Boston paused briefly to reflect and pay homage. Pennant fever is sweeping this baseball-happy town, and the only field plan that interests the community is the diamond strategies of another William, Willy Billy Southworth, manager of the National league-leading Boston Braves.

And if the shrewd Southworth has any challenging cry it might easily be, "Don't swing until you see the whites of their curve balls." For the Braves, in their last four games since embarking on the usually disastrous road trip have slaughtered enemy moundsmen for 59 hits (or an average of practically 15 safeties a game) for a total of 42 runs.

Yesterday, the Braves continued the batting carnage by smashing 16 hits against five Cincinnati pitchers for an easy 11 to 1 victory, and today they are in first place by a game over the second place New York Giants.

Red Sox Win
The other Boston entry, the Red Sox in the American league, maintained the pattern of jubilation by nipping the cellar-confined St. Louis Browns 6 to 5 for their seventh consecutive success. The Sox now trail the front-running New York Yankees by a scant one game margin.

The slumping Detroit Tigers fell before the slants of a 20-year-old rookie, Carl Scheib, 5 to 2 to drop to third place two full games off the pace. Scheib only gave up five hits to win his second game of the year over the Bengals for the Athletics.

Bobby Feller racked up his ninth victory and his fourth straight triumph last night as the Cleveland Indians clipped the Washington Senators, 5 to 3. Stan Spence belted his eighth homer of the year in the eighth inning with Mickey Vernon on first.

Cards Win Again
In the National league, the soaring Redbirds from Missouri, the St. Louis Cardinals suddenly exploded for three runs in the last of the ninth to save the ball game, 7 to 6, and stretch their winning streak to six straight games.

Rain postponed the Cubs-Dodgers game at Chicago, and the Cincinnati-Pirates affair was washed out in Pittsburgh.

Rain Halts Game Between Juniors

On Tuesday evening at Lehigh field the Perry S. Gaston Post American Legion Juniors locked horns with the Ellwood City American Legion Junior team, and three innings were played before rain washed out the contest.

The local team was leading 2-0 when rain halted the contest. In the first inning, Gray for New Castle walked and Session, Gaston Post's big left fielder, hit a homer.

The batteries were Szuba and L. Clark for New Castle, and P. Koshier and Graham for Ellwood City.

County Leaguers In Hectic Fight

Wampum's Surprise Loss To Edenburg Makes First Division Battle Close

Baseball, like the weather of late, has been a little bit screwy in the Lawrence County league. For reference, ask managers Porter and Wardman of the Wampum Legion, whose proud champs provided meat for the tail-end Edenburg-Tigers Sunday.

This bold slap, Edenburg's second win in ten starts, proves this position means little in the loop this season and that the struggle to say in the first division to enter the play-offs should be a merry round of mayhem from now to August 15.

Most of the warfare has involved Bessemer, Hillsville, Ellwood Moose and New Galilee, who all, at one time or another, have been in second place, clawing at the fast-moving Wampum club. These clubs are bunched closer than bananas on a stick and mean to do some tall fighting to remain in their upper slots.

Waynes, Vets Dangerous

The Ellwood Vets and the Wayne A.C. are perched at the top of the cellar steps. They seem to follow the old adage about the little boy . . . "when they are good they are very, very good, but when they are bad, etc." Bringing up the rear are Castletown, St. Lucy's and Edenburg, all capable of aiming a monkey-wrench as their upstart companions, the Tigers, demonstrated.

At the present time the Wampum club is leading the Bessemer Centermen by 2 1/2 games, the Moose by 3, New Galilee by 3 and Hillsville by 3 1/2.

All Active Tonight

Tonight finds a full round of action in the circuit. It's "Friday" night again, with St. Lucy's and Hillsville in a clash, Bessemer at Edenburg, Vets and Moose tangling, Wayne A. C. at Wampum and New Galilee at Castletown.

County Chatter: Jess Exposito has assumed the managership of the Edenburg club, taking over from Jim Mayberry . . . The new Tiger pilot hopes to unveil Glenn Hoover, Union high hurler, in his game with Bessemer tonight. . . County fans are anxious to see the slender right-hander in faster ball, after changing to civilian clothes, continued to heckle from the sidelines until the end of the contest.

Call Off Games For Tonight At Flaherty Field

Gardner Announces Postponement Of Tonight's Card, Wet Grounds

TUESDAY OPENING IS WASHED OUT
Ralph H. Gardner, business manager for the Johnson Bronze Employees association, today announced the calling off of tonight's tournament games and the Flaherty field dedication, owing to wet grounds and the threat of more rain today and tonight by the weatherman.

A survey of the field at 9 o'clock this morning caused the cancelling of the night card, the rain of Tuesday evening having made the field rather soggy, and dangerous underfoot.

Depends On Weather

If favorable weather is forecast for later in the week the long delayed opening may take place, Gardner stated. Despite the threat of rain at 5:30 o'clock last evening quite a number of rabid baseball fans showed up for the first game carded at 6:30 o'clock, but after the Beaver Falls and Bessemer teams had had their batting and fielding practice the rain came and spoiled the evening.

Interest in the opening of the field and the tournament games continues strong here, despite so many disappointments.

Wayne A.C. Player Draws Suspension

Bill Cole Barred From League Action For Five Days For Baiting

Second punitive action of the season was enforced today when William Cole, Wayne A. C. player, drew a five-day suspension for flagrant heckling of umpire Nick Rotunno at Monday night's game between the Waynes and New Galilee.

Carl B. Romack, loop vice-president, acting in the absence of president Alec Samuels, said that Cole's suspension will become effective today and carry through Sunday—making him eligible to rejoin his team in their scheduled game with St. Lucy's, June 25.

Action was taken after a formal protest to the league was entered by umpire Rotunno, who labeled Cole's heckling as "the most ungentlemanly behavior of a ball player in my ten years of umpiring."

Cole protested a decision in the third inning of the game when the pitcher attempted to nip a runner off first base and the runner slid back safely. The Wayne player's violent outburst, ended in Rotunno banishing him from the game. However, according to the umpire, Cole, after changing to civilian clothes, continued to heckle from the sidelines until the end of the contest.

Volant Defeats Pulaski, 2 To 1

Despite a drizzle of rain, and with Yeager pitching a swell three-hitter, the Volant team defeated Pulaski in a North County league game at Pulaski last night 2 to 1.

Volant hopped on Mitchellree for two runs in the top half of the fourth to gain their victory. Tillia led the hitting with a pair of singles.

'Hot Tops' Whip Wampum, 6 To 4

WAMPUM, June 18.—Wampum's champs found themselves in an even more precarious position in the County League today, following their second straight defeat last night—New Galilee turning the trick, 6-4.

This time it was Bobby Cleric who put the quietus on the Legion bats, spinning a six-hitter. Joe Hairhogger started for the losers, with Wally Carroll flinging the relief stint.

The game was a playing-off of a rained out contest scheduled in May.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

GENTS who deal in the pro' art of hit and miss are throwing out lines to Eddie Marotta of Cleveland, world's featherweight amateur champ, to turn pro. They're doing likewise to Ted Fittipaldo, world's junior featherweight champ, of Warren. Marotta defeated Kurt Kreuger Sweden, two weeks ago in the Chicago Golden Gloves to win the world's diadem. Fittipaldo, a pert fighter, who fights as though he was reading it out of a book, is also pugilistic cream, and it is doubtful which one would win, were they to clash. . . . Jack Biddle, New Castle, who has been boxing under the management of George Sheppard of Brooklyn, is in town. . . . Russ Baxter, local middleweight, is the beau brummel of local boxers.

Lew Worsham, 29, Oakmont, Pa., pro' won the National Open with a 29½-inch putt, after Sammy Sneed, in a thrilling play-off missed a two foot, six and one-half inch putt. The win put $2,500, in Lew's jeans. . . . Johnny Locisano, fistic destiner for Frankie Moran, says: "None of Jimmy Sanders of Warren for Frankie, until he has had half a dozen bouts beneath his belt." . . . Clark Griffith, of the Senators, is proud of the two players he claims he "raised from 'pups'." Bucky Harris and Joe Cronin. There's not so much difference between the teams they manage, the Yanks and Senators, respectively. . . . "Didn't I always treat you like a son?" asked Eddie Dyer of Harry Walker who has been hitting like a house afire since traded by the Cards to the Phils: "Maybe that was the trouble. You treat all players like sons while Ben Chapman is always hauling us over the coals," was Walker's reply.

Williams Leads In National Poll

CHICAGO, June 18.—(INS)—Ted Williams, left fielder of the Boston Red Sox, still clung to a slight lead today over Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankee center fielder, as the most popular player in the all-star baseball poll.

Latest figures released by headquarters for the poll among 193 newspapers, radio stations and magazines, show Williams with 101,352 votes and DiMaggio with 100,287.

All-Star Game Plans Complete

CHICAGO, June 18.—(INS)—Details for the 14th annual all-star baseball game to be played at Wrigley field July 8 were completed today, following a Chicago meeting of American and National league representatives.

Decisions agreed upon were:

1. Each team will have 25 players, with at least one player from every major league club on the roster.
2. Final announcement of the team rosters, now being chosen by vote of fans, will be made July 2.
3. The National league is the home club. A National league ball will be used and N. L. players will wear white home uniforms. American leaguers grey road suits.
4. The players receiving the most fan votes for each league at each position except pitcher must remain in the game at least three innings.
5. No pitcher may remain in the game more than three innings with the exception of a pitcher who is working at the nine-inning point of an extra-inning game.
6. If postponed by weather, the scheduled 1:30 (C.D.T.) starting time will be moved up a half hour to 1 the next day, July 9.
7. Among the conferees at the combined meeting were Will Harridge, president of the American league; Ford Frick, National league head, and Walter Mulberry, secretary to Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

The board of education has declared the position of head coach of football at Greensburg high school vacant, throwing Joseph J. Gates, who held the post last year, out of a job. No explanation was given.

Vic Ghezzi, U. S. professional golf champion in 1941 and runnerup in the national open last year, flew from LaGuardia field for England and the British open starting June 30.

Phillies Sign Schoolboy Star Curt Simmons

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—(INS)—Curt Simmons, one of the most coveted schoolboy pitchers in the country, was signed up Monday with the Phillies.

Simmons, a rangy 18-year-old southpaw from Egypt, Pa., was immediately farmed to the Phils' Wilmington, Del., (Interstate league) team.

Robert R. M. Carpenter, Jr., Phillies' president, declined to reveal terms of the contract but described the price as a "considerable sum".

Eight other major league clubs made offers to Simmons, who was graduated from Whitehall high school last June 7.

He was chosen all-American boy at a national all-star game in New York and has pitched several no-hit games. Early in June he struck out 11 Phillies in an exhibition tilt.

Frank Souchak Is Leading Qualifier For Amateur Meet

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—(INS)—Frank Souchak, assistant coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, today led 45 qualifiers from the western section into the Pennsylvania amateur golf championships.

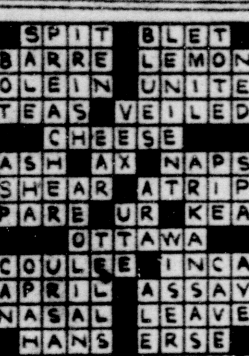

Souchak yesterday paced a field of 107 shotmakers by five strokes as he fired a 145, one over par, for 36 holes on the rugged Oakmont course in Pittsburgh.

Dave Jamison, like Souchak also an Oakmont member, finished second with 150, and Andy Szewick, former national public links champion, was third with 151.

It took only a 166 to qualify for the state meet, to be held at the Pittsburgh Field Club, July 16-18.

SCARE BROADCAST SOLDIERS GIVEN TRANSFER IN JAPAN

YOKOHAMA, June 18.—(INS)—Two army men who collaborated on the script of a frightening broadcast heard in Tokyo May 29 were transferred Tuesday without loss of grade to I corps headquarters in Kyoto.

The transfers were ordered for Sgt. Arthur Bartick and Cpl. Pierre Myers, both of Los Angeles.

The broadcast described the sudden appearance of a monster in the streets of Tokyo. Although the monster was strictly a fictional character, many persons who heard the broadcast really believed what they were hearing and were considerably upset.

Bartick and Myers were removed from the staff of the armed forces radio immediately after the broadcast.

The first duel in which a president of the United States took part was fought in 1806, when Andrew Jackson shot and killed Charles Dickinson. However, Jackson did not become president until March 4, 1829.
